Metallic décor has ruled the world of interior design for a long time now and it's not going anywhere. Whether you want to spruce up your homes according to the season, or want the interiors to feel trendier, a metallic décor style is all that you need.

Metal is one of the easiest designs that you can make. This season it's all about different shades of gold – be it matte finish or high-glossy metallic furniture or accent pieces. While copper and rose gold remain favourites for décor enthusiasts, the daring ones are going bold and shimmery with gold finishes.

“Gold and brass accents, with their glamorous and opulent allure, can instantly transform your living spaces into elegant sanctuaries. When it comes to infusing your décor with the charm of these lustrous metals, furniture pieces adorned with gilded embellishments take centre stage. These items exude an air of sophistication and seamlessly weave the magic of festivities into your surroundings,” says, Sajal Lamba, co-founder, Wriwer.

Making a statement in a space that gets a lot of foot traffic is crucial. To give them an instant makeover, add leafy plants or fresh blooms. Along with greens, gilded mirrors and paintings reflect sophistication.

While mirrors make a space feel brighter and larger, artful paintings transport you to a different world.

“Gold has an enduring appeal that transcends cultures and traditions and can

DID YOU KNOW? To give an instant décor makeover, add leafy plants or fresh blooms. Along with greens, gilded mirrors, candles, and paintings reflect sophistication seamlessly blend into any décor theme. You can use gold in various forms to create focal points, such as gilded picture frames, shimmering candleholders, ornate gold-embroidered throw pillows, and rich, golden draperies. Gold-trimmed dinnerware, cutlery, and glassware can elevate your dining experience, while chandeliers and lamps with gold finishes cast a warm and inviting glow,” says, Devyani Gupta, founder and spokesperson, Vakr Studio.

Elaborating more, Kuntal Vyas Aggarwal, founder and design head, Resaiki Interiors and Architecture Design Studio, shares, “Consider painting an accent wall in a metallic gold shade or using gold wallpaper to create a stunning focal point in any room. Curtains with gold patterns or fabric can also add to the festive look. Also, gold-framed art and mirrors can be excellent additions. They not only add a touch of luxury but also create a sense of space and brightness.”

Allow tabletops to lead the scene. Today, markets have an abundant variety of tabletops of all shapes, sizes, and designs.

“To create a layered and enchanting ambience, consider arranging an assortment of tableware, candle holders, and decorative plates with metallic accents on your dining table. This not only adds depth and texture but also serves as a delightful visual feast for your guests. Additionally, adorning your tabletop with a stunning flower arrangement is an excellent way to infuse your space with both beauty and fragrance, creating a multisensory experience. The delicate, natural scent of flowers can enhance the festive atmosphere, making your home even more inviting and harmonious,” adds Lamba.

Adding more, Rachna Agarwal, founder and design ideator, Studio IAAD, says, “Bringing in accents of gold in the dinnerware makes a room stunning. You can opt for a maximalist design and over-the-top decorating with golden plates, vases, and even mats — or keep it muted with subtle accessories such as a vase.”

On a concluding note, Ramesh Bhandari, director, A-Class Marble, says, “The beauty of incorporating gold accents into festive home décor lies in the ability to balance grandeur and subtlety, allowing the living spaces to shine with understated opulence. In doing so, you can create an inviting, lavish, and perfectly harmonious space for a lasting impression.”
