HOUSE OF MAHÉ

House of Mahé crafts premium soft furnishings inspired by Kerala's handloom and Mahé's French heritage. Using traditional weaving, its collections showcase muted tones, delicate textures, and detailed designs—from Kasavu saree cushions to repurposed dhurries. Each piece promotes mindful living, blending subtle elegance with a strong sense of place.

FURNVEL LLP

Furnvel's outdoor seating collection combines bold black-charcoal frames with clean, geometric lines for modern luxury. Neutral cushions add comfort and versatility, making them ideal for terraces or patios. Its sculptural design complements various styles, blending function and form to create inviting, elegant outdoor and semi-outdoor spaces.

NUANCE STUDIO

Nuance Studio transforms surfaces into luxury concrete sculptures. Specialising in bespoke wall panels, furniture, and accents, it uses advanced Litheoz concrete for durability and elegance. Combining fluid forms with precise engineering, Nuance delivers handcrafted creations that enrich residential, commercial, and hospitality spaces with timeless, tactile sophistication.

NIMRAT NARANG

New Delhi-based artist Nimrat Narang transforms industrial waste—textiles, cement, wood, and more—into vibrant artworks. Emphasising sustainability and innovation, her pieces reveal beauty in bridging construction remnants with creative expression. As a “texture experimentalist,” she challenges perceptions of value through conceptually layered creations.

METANESTT

Metanestt merges engineering precision with artisanal skills, creating premium architectural facades, bespoke metal interiors, and sculptural furnishings. From laser-cut screens and intricate cladding to custom furniture and installations, its designs draw from natural geometries and organic textures, redefining metal as a refined, expressive medium where strength meets seamless functionality.

YURA RUGS

Jaipur-based Yura Rugs blends India's weaving traditions with modern design, evolving from a 19th-century yarn trader into a global brand. Managing all production stages in-house, it ensures quality while reinterpreting classic patterns with contemporary palettes, creating artisan rugs that bring texture, warmth, and timeless beauty to diverse interiors worldwide.

WRIVER

Wriver, a premium furniture brand from Gurugram, combines innovative materials with refined design. Championing “Made in India,” it offers sculptural consoles, tactile coffee tables, and modular seating through in-house and global collaborations. With flagship stores across India, Wriver sets new standards in luxury, innovation, and sophisticated living.

DELTA FAUCET COMPANY

Delta Faucet Company (DFC), part of the Masco Group, is a global leader in premium bathroom fittings. In India, it offers Delta with innovations like H2Oknetic®, ShieldSpray®, and Touch2O®, and Brizo for luxury lifestyles. From advanced showers to intuitive diverters, DFC blends style, comfort, and technology for elevated bathrooms.
